FELLOW (FAHRI) - Refer to the application guide for further information

Eligibility criteria:

AHRI fellowship is a level of professional membership which recognises HR professionals who have achieved a significant level of experience and capability in Human Resource Management. Applicants will be required to satisfy a minimum of 3 of the following criteria:

1. Ten or more years' experience in a functional HR role
2. A minimum of five of those years in a senior HR leadership position as per the following:
 - Can demonstrate leadership in strategic and budgetary responsibilities, in either or both generalist or specialist HR roles, within complex and demanding organisational contexts.
 - Leads a team of HR professionals in contributing to the achievement of the organisation's objectives.
3. Completion of an AHRI accredited or relevant postgraduate qualification or equivalent knowledge, skills and experience
4. Has made a significant contribution to the HR profession: this can include, but is not limited to non-work related activities such as presenting/lecturing/tutoring at conferences & universities, involvement with groups external to your workplace in which your HR expertise is utilised (eg business/social/sporting), significant involvement with HR research projects, volunteering with AHRI, writing and contributing to academic and other publications.

Applicants will be asked to provide evidence to support each of the above criteria in order to determine eligibility. Applicants may also be eligible based on an assessment of criterion 4, provided sufficient evidence is provided to support the significant contribution to the HR profession.
